

Brown-Bag Speed Date with a Higher Education Health, Safety and Security Specialist

Do you have a specific, burning question related to international risk management and The Forum's Standard 8? Do you want to better engage with the State Department? Do you need advice about vetting assistance providers? Want to better understand how to support LGBTQ travelers? Need to assess risks for travel to Kenya or Turkey? Need to apply Title IX principles to your education abroad operations? Trying to support budding journalists, agricultural economists or physicians? Looking to increase engagement in Mexico or Central America? Want to discuss best practices in crisis communications planning? Worried about Zika, Malaria, Dengue or Chikungunya?

Get these and other health and safety questions answered by members of Pulse: Higher Education International Health and Safety Professionals. Our pool of experts will staff round tables for specific locations or topics during three 20-minute rotations during lunch.

Facilitators will be split between three rooms. The first session will begin at 12:20, the second at 12:45 and the third at 1:05pm.

Pick up your lunch in the Northwestern Room (202) between 12:00 and 12:15

Northwestern Room (202): Tables #1-5

Table #1

Andrea Bordeau, Assistant Director of International Health and Safety, University of Illinois-Champaign-Urbana

High-threat Locations or Activities – Travel Warning destinations, Conflict Zones, Post-conflict Zones, Agricultural Development Projects, Journalism, etc.

Table #2

Andrea Drake, International Travel Safety Advisor, University of Massachusetts-Amherst

Developing Travel Oversight Committees/Policies

Table #3

Maureen Gordon, Director of Health, Safety and Security, Arcadia University

Travel and Pre-existing Health Conditions

Table #4

Landes Holbrook, International Security Analyst, Brigham Young University

Engaging with OSAC and/or The U.S. Department of State

Table #5

Sean Bridegman, Global Risk Manager, the University of Utah

Travel Registries

The Lake Room (203): Tables #6-10

Table #6

Todd Holmes, Program Manager, International Health and Safety, Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Supporting LGBTQ Travelers

Table #7

Jason Hope, Manager of International Health and Safety, University of Kentucky

Crisis Communication Planning

Table #8

Ron Machoian, International Safety and Security Director, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Travel Risk Assessments and/or Rating Schemes

Table #9

Jess Miller, International Risk Analyst, the University of Texas at Austin

Travel in Latin America – especially Mexico

Table #10

Beth Osterlund, Program Coordinator, Office of Global Safety and Security, Northwestern University

Tracking/Support for Non-Credit Undergraduate Travelers

The Wildcat Room (101): Tables #11-14

Table #11

Stacey Bolton Tsantir, Director of Health and Safety, DIS – Study Abroad in Scandinavia

Title IX/VAWA Policy Applications

Table #12

Susan Soisson, Risk Management and Mobility Services Coordinator, University of Notre Dame

Working with Students to Drive Risk Management Efforts

Table #13

Nicole Tobin, International Risk Manager, Colorado State University

Insect-borne Illnesses: Dengue, Chikungunya, Malaria and Zika

Table #14

Alex Viox, Associate Director for International Safety and Security, Harvard University

Evaluating Medical and Security Assistance Providers, Benefits, Coverage Limits, etc.