

Kristine Clay, Coordinator for World Partner and Special Programs

Syracuse University Programming

THE CONTEXT

- Large private university with diverse study abroad programming: over 40 countries, 100+ programs, 2200 outbound students per year
- Exchange programming is a small portion of overall participation, but key for specific academic areas and utilized for increased international partnerships

Exchange Programs

THE HISTORY

- First exchange in late 1980s through Florence Center
- Direct academic pairings
- Primarily inbound graduate students
- Strategic direct enrollment options for outbound students
- Grew to include full range of academic areas, increased undergrad participation
- Mixed models with some programs housed in SU Abroad, others directly administered by school/college

THE NUMBERS

- AY 2013: 49 students
- AY 2010: 42 students
- AY 2007: 11 students

33 active agreements in 2013

Themes

- Dramatic growth in the last 10 years
- Strain on institutional staff and resources
- More complex group of stakeholders as individual schools and colleges create independent linkages
- Implications for risk management, enrollment management, student services, housing and more.