

THE FORUM ON EDUCATION ABROAD

REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL

HOST OF THE 2020 EUROPEAN CONFERENCE

How to complete the RFP

After reviewing the description of the event, host requirements, host benefits and timeline below, please describe in detail how your institution/organization/location proposes to meet the requirements.

Successful proposals will describe how the institution/organization can meet the requirements detailed below, by including supporting documentation in electronic format (such as facility floor plans, city, and/or campus maps; food service options; and links to websites of nearby hotels, airports, and public transportation). The Forum would like to confirm a host 18 months in advance of the anticipated date of the event in order to allow for adequate time to plan the conference.

Submission Deadline: January 13, 2019.

1. Event Description

The Forum on Education abroad has organized a European Conference every other year since 2012. Past hosts include: University College Dublin (Ireland), Universitat Pompeu Fabra (Spain), College Year in Athens (Greece), and NYU Prague (Czech Republic).

The Forum plans to conduct its fifth European conference in mid-late October, 2020 for an expected 400-500 participants. The European Conference spans over 4 days with an in-depth focus on and exploration of a theme that will be selected by The Forum's European Conference Committee.

The conference schedule has flexibility to account for space and speaker availability; a tentative schedule for the European conference is as follows:

- Day 1: Critical Dialogue; on-site registration
- Day 2: On-site registration; pre-conference workshops; early evening welcome reception
- Day 3: On-site registration; morning and afternoon concurrent sessions; lunch; morning and afternoon coffee breaks; afternoon plenary
- Day 4: On-site registration; concurrent morning and afternoon conference sessions; lunch; celebration toast

2. Host Requirements

Membership Requirements:

- Host must be a Forum member in good standing.

Facility Requirements:

- A centralized location in which six meeting/session rooms (for concurrent sessions) can be conducted between 8:30 a.m.–5 p.m. on Day 3 and Day 4 of the conference
 - Meeting/session room requirements: Each session room must have capacity for 50-100 participants (Total combined capacity of available rooms must be 450-500). Two or more session rooms should have the ability to be configured to allow for small group breakout discussion work. Session rooms should be located roughly in the same proximity to allow for ease of moving between sessions and locating the rooms.
 - Luncheon space requirements: Must have capacity for 450-500 participants with the ability for buffet or plated lunch to be served; podium or stand with microphone for plenary speaker, adequate A/V support for speaker to be heard in room, and staging.

- Function space for morning and afternoon coffee breaks, celebration toast: Must have capacity for 450-500 participants. This could be an open space, large room/hall, or the same space as the luncheon.
 - Auditorium or function space for Plenary: seating capacity of at least 450-500, stage, screen and projector, podium with microphone, lighting, sound, etc.
 - Audio/Visual Services: access to reliable WiFi for session presenters, computer-projector capacity in each session room, speakers for sound. An Audio Visual technician should be on hand during the conference in the event of any problems.
 - One room to serve as storage and office (with a table and at least 6 chairs) during the conference, with access to a computer and printer
 - Space for three 6-8 ft tables to serve as a Registration Area on site. Must have access to power for computers and printer and be in a central, visible indoor location.
- One venue for an early evening reception to accommodate 450-500 people (reception style), including service capacity for bars, and light hors d'oeuvres
 - All meeting/function space should be provided on a complimentary basis.

Local Arrangement Requirements:

- Pertinent transportation information, including a summary of directions, distance, cost and transportation options from nearest airport, local/campus map and parking details (to be provided on website and in confirmation to participants).
- Local hotel information (special rate, contacts, walking time/distance to conference facilities); The Forum will make direct contact to reserve a room block.
- Catering contact information/preferred vendor list; The Forum will make and pay for catering arrangements. Please include a sample breakdown of costs for a typical coffee break, lunch and reception menu at a recommended caterer to indicate expected meal expenses.
- A staff member that will serve as the chief contact for The Forum and who will assist in confirming meeting/function space reservations as well as provide details for the local arrangement requirements listed above. A phone number should be provided for someone who can be reached during all conference activities in the event of question or problems.
- Three to five volunteers for Day 1 and Day 2, two volunteers for Day 3 of the event to assist participants and provide general assistance to The Forum staff.

3. Host Benefits

The host institution of The Forum on Education Abroad's European Conference will receive the following:

- Acknowledgement of the institution/organization's role on The Forum's website on a page dedicated to the Conference Host, in the Forum News (electronic newsletter) and in all European conference printed material and communications. Promotion of any institution/organization events on The Forum website.
- Logo will be displayed at the Opening Reception along with Reception Sponsor and Forum Logo.
- Host institution will be able to select from Sponsorship opportunities before they are made available to general public.
 - Institution to supply the official logo to be used.
- Five complimentary conference registrations.

4. Implementation Plan

Once documentation is submitted to indicate that the facilities meet the criteria, The Forum will notify the institution within one month regarding the status of the proposal.
