

Should I stay or should I go?

Navigating Career Transitions within Education Abroad

Forum on Education Abroad Conference
March 28, 2019

Presenters

Kelly Holland, Associate Director for Institutional Partnerships, Global Experiences

Chelsea Kindred, Director of Alumni Development and Research, Academic Programs International (API)

Rebecca Pisano, Associate Dean, Global & Experiential Learning, Stevenson University

Quick poll: Visit kahoot.it and enter the pin on the screen!

Career Transitions

- Internal/External factors
- Salary data
 - Mean = $70,978
(Forum on Education Abroad Preliminary Report: 2013 Institutional Program and Resources Survey, Individual Member Response Data)
 - Chief Campus Study Abroad Administrator = $77,528
Head International Student Affairs = $63,974
Study Abroad Advisor = $47,791
(2017-2018 Professional Salaries CUPA-HR, HigherEdJobs)
- Pay transparency
- Equity/Access in hiring practices

Self-Assessment Worksheet

- Individual
- Group discussion

Break-Out Discussion Groups

- Negotiating for Change
- Networking for Change
- Planning for Change

Discussion Group: Negotiating for Change

- “I like what I’m doing; I’m negotiating for change.”

Discussion Group: Networking for Change

- “I want a new role / job, and I’m ready to start.”

Discussion Group: Planning for Change

- “I’m looking to grow, and make plans for long-term.”

Break-Out Discussion Groups

- Negotiating for Change (Chelsea)
- Networking for Change (Kelly)
- Planning for Change (Rebecca)

Thank you!

Kelly Holland — kelly@globalexperiences.com

Chelsea Kindred — chelsea.kindred@apiabroad.com

Rebecca Pisano — rpisano@stevenson.edu