

Round-Table Discussion Questions

INDIVIDUALLY: What do these terms mean to me?

Values:

Responsible Travel:

AS A TABLE: What are some specific values that underpin responsible travel?

It might be helpful to think about this by first imagining a portrait of an ideal study abroad student. What values does this ideal student hold?

Modeling the Values of Responsible Travel
The Forum on Education Abroad 2019 Conference Session

AS A TABLE: Discuss ways you are/could be modeling the values of responsible travel in your office/home campus.

- ❖ Return to your list of specific values and select 2-3 that you feel are most important/most applicable beyond the boundaries of a program.
- ❖ Consider things you are doing with students before and after programs (trying to focus on what you do beyond the boundaries of a program).
- ❖ Consider actions that model these values in terms of the way your office operates or standards you have set.
- ❖ Consider how you collaborate with others: colleagues / departments / organizations / communities.

➤ What are some examples of what we are doing well?

➤ What could we improve?

➤ What barriers do we face to modeling values of responsible travel?

INDIVIDUALLY: CALL TO ACTION: What is one action you can take in the coming year to better model the values of responsible travel in your work environment?

CONTACT INFO:

Darren Grosch
dgrosch@mtsac.edu

Aaron Slosberg
aaron@wheretherebedragons.com

Shino Yoshen
shino@wheretherebedragons.com

Cara Lane-Toomey
cara@wheretherebedragons.com

Check out: wheretherebedragons.com/news in a few weeks for blog post related to this session.